

A statement of the boards, councils, committees and other bodies to the public

This is done regularly through formal and informal meetings with public representative like, NRUCC, ZRUCC.

However, it is continuous process and any public representative can contact at any time. Also a proper Public Redressal System is available.