

Shri Vijay Sharma
General Manager, North Western Railway

Shri Vijay Sharma has assumed the charge as the General Manager of North Western Railway. Before joining as GM/NWR, Shri Vijay Sharma was posted as Chief Administrative Officer/Udhampur-Srinagar-Baramulla Rail Link Project (USBRL) at Northern Railway.

Shri Vijay Sharma is an experienced officer of "Indian Railway Service of Engineers" (IRSE) of 1984 batch. Shri Vijay Sharma has graduated in Civil Engineering from IIT-Roorkee with Gold Medal. During his illustrious career, Shri Vijay Sharma has successfully discharged his responsibilities at key posts of Indian Railways. Shri Vijay Sharma has vast experience of working as Chief Administrative Officer/Udhampur-Srinagar-Baramulla Rail Link Project-Northern Railway, Chief Safety Officer-North Western Railway, Divisional Railway Manager, Guntur-South Central Railway, Chief Engineer (Construction) and Chief Engineer (General)-South Central Railway, Executive Director (Track Machine) - RDSO, Deputy Chief Engineer (Construction), Jodhpur etc.

While working as Executive Director (RDSO), Shri Vijay Sharma spearheaded the commissioning of track recording car. Shri Sharma has vast experience of tunneling work in young fold mountains of Himalayas having weak and fragile geology with faults, thrusts and shear zones during his tenure as Chief Administrative Officer/Udhampur-Srinagar-Baramulla Rail Link Project. Along with this, Shri Sharma has experience of construction of world's tallest bridge on Chenab river which is 359 meter high and 1315 meter long, the main arch of Chenab Bridge having 550 meter arch length, has been completed in April 2021. Apart from this, Shri Vijay Sharma also has experience of working in the bridge construction of first cable stayed rail bridge in India (Anji Bridge).

Shri Vijay Sharma has received trainings in Advanced Leadership and Strategic Management from Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburg-USA and SDA Bocconi Business School, Milan, Italy. Shri Vijay Sharma has keen interest in Sports, Yoga, Reading, Information Technology and Innovation.